

Driving Directions to Ballyteige Lodge

Ballyteige is situated in the heart of the Wicklow mountains, less than 90 minutes from Dublin.

Driving Directions From Dublin

- Take the N11/M11 south until Junction 16 for Rathnew/Wicklow.
- Take the R752 in Rathnew (right on roundabout) to Rathdrum.
- Continue past Rathdrum, taking the right turn, R753 down the hill for Ballinaclash/Aughrim.
- In Aughrim, take the Aghavannagh/Rathdangan road.
- The entrance to Ballyteige Lodge is on the left, around 5 miles/10 minutes from Aughrim, just after a narrow river bridge.

Alternative Driving Directions from Dublin (Scenic Route)

- Take the N11/M11 south until Kilmacanogue.
- Take the R755 for Roundwood and Glendalough. Continue until Laragh (24km).
- Take the left turn for Rathdrum, still following the R755.
- After a narrow bridge, take the right turn up a hill, signposted for Glenmalure.
- In Glenmalure, go straight through the crossroads, heading for Aghavannagh.
- In Aghavannagh, take the left turn, signposted Aughrim.
- Ballyteige Lodge is on the right, around 5 minutes from Aghavannagh, just before a narrow river bridge.

Driving Directions From Wexford/Rosslare Harbour

- Take the N11/M11 to Arklow.
- Take the R747 to Aughrim, via Woodenbridge.
- In Aughrim, take the Aghavannagh/Rathdangan road.
- The entrance to Ballyteige Lodge is on the left, around 5 miles/10 minutes from Aughrim, just after a narrow river bridge.